God...Why? Shawna Renee Cauthen

Why did God make things the way He did? Why did he make the colors and the animals? In this delightful exchange between a curious child and God, author Shawna Renee unlocks the simple possibilities of the thinking of our Creator. God...Why? allows for dialogue between child and adult, involving the creativity of little minds. Children will learn to ponder these gifts from God that they see in the world around them. Take time to wonder and explore with them as you ask God...Why?
