fighting. Mathew loses his finance and brother over the skies of Nepal during a terrorist operation, but finds a new family and true love again in London. Mathew becomes leader of the most successful and deadly thieving nameless guild of four members, supported by a mastermind billionaire. The founders of the Yimen complex meet their doom at the hands of Lee Frost and his family of superhumans bent on revenge. The brutal death of his adopted brother and sister in front of his eyes, stirs up a new found desire to fight crime. But first Lee and Cindy, his younger sister, ruthlessly kill all of the foundation members, setting off a chain reaction by the government to strengthen special operations agencies by focusing on superhuman telepaths used for counterespionage operations. Lee and Cindy part ways in pursuit of their own lives and future, free from their dark past. The guild without a name pulls off a heist shifting military power to countries desiring world domination. Lee uses his superhuman powers to become a top ranked sniper and mercenary for hire as a cover to find criminals, but falls for Diana one of the members in the guild, and a criminal goddess of his dreams. Saving Mathew and Diana's lives during an operation, Lee uncovers a conspiracy implicating Australia as the masterminds behind assassinations and thefts of national security technology. Lee takes a chance by joining the guild with their unorthodox methods of crime fighting. Both groups kill or steal for personal moral or twisted reasons, but both are heroic at heart.
