The Long Way Home Linda Gould

Peaches Packer swore she didn't burn the house down. And because of the accident Peaches and her brother Matthew bought an almost new RV called The Bounder. The RV salesman was surprised that two individuals each weighing around 300 pounds would be comfortable in a motor home. This wasn't a worry for the Packers. The adventure started out as a lark. But quickly the voids in their lives gnawed their way into the escapade. What Peaches really wanted was a man to love and take care of her. But, recently divorced, she wasn't sure how to find one. Matthew wanted someone in his life too and it wasn't his sister. Forced to face the reality of Matthew's desires and the ominous need to take responsibility for a theft, Peaches relies on her own ingenuity to jumpstart her life. She ultimately strengthens her self-esteem and forges a brand new direction.
