Touch & Go Peter O'Sullivan

An original legal thriller from debut author and lawyer Peter O'Sullivan; packed with twists, turns, moral choices and an ending you just won't see coming.

Life is great for Dan Grover a sports loving, confident young lawyer who inherits a small Brisbane legal practice. His world is turned upside down when he plunges headfirst into a murder investigation and trial that hits too close to home and fractures the very core of his identity, relationships and belief systems.

As Dan's self-assurance shatters he turns to someone he hasn't had contact with in a while.

And where is God when you really want to hear from him?
