Blessings from Acorn Hill (Tales from grace chapel inn) Judy Baer

Slices of Life: Acorn Hill is busy with preparations for an all-county reunion, and while the Howard sisters look forward to catching up with old friends, Grace Chapel Inn is busy with guests who need lots of attention—and prayer. Meanwhile, a young couple staying at the inn can't agree on their direction for the future and it's tearing them apart. Can the Howard sisters help both of them find a way to realize their dreams? As they help one another through tough decisions, the sisters are reminded that faith is the best guide. The Way We Were: Jane Howard's college roommates gather for a reunion at Grace Chapel Inn, and time seems to disappear. As they reconnect, they uncover old wounds and confess long-buried secrets, and soon it looks like their time together just might be a disaster. The weekend, however, turns into an impromptu quilting retreat that brings healing and encouragement and reminds the women of the blessing of old friends.
