Homeschooling is not for the faint of heart. While deeply rewarding, homeschooling takes hard work, dedication, and planning. It's a full time job, and burnout is all too common among homeschool families. Take Heart is packed with anecdotes, ideas, and real life experiences to encourage, inspire, and help you along your journey. In this essential book for homeschool parents, the author shares the failures and successes from her nearly 20 years of homeschooling her six children. Take Heart will keep you laughing as you learn valuable lessons about creating, building, and establishing a homeschool that is happy, healthy and full of heart. This book is a must-read for new and veteran homeschool parents, as well as anyone who's considering educating their children from home.
