Unitas multiplex: Unités et fragmentations en droit international (Jus Gentium) (French Edition)

Mario Prost

La « fragmentation » est devenue une métaphore fondamentale, bien que controversée, de la doctrine du droit international à l'ère de la globalisation. Le concept d'unité, qui se situe au cœur du débat sur la fragmentation, n'a pourtant fait l'objet à ce jour d'aucune véritable mise en perspective théorique. Le plus souvent, le concept est utilisé de manière intuitive, sans être véritablement explicité. Le présent ouvrage s'emploie à dissiper ce flou théorique et aborde du point de vue de la philosophie du droit les possibles significations du concept d'unité dans le champ du droit international.
