Managing Conflict in Projects: Applying Mindfulness and Analysis for Optimal Results George Pitagorsky

It's an essential part of every project. It can come from any direction: from inside the core team, from senior stakeholders, even from the external market itself. It can take an infinite variety of forms. Healthy conflict will make a project more likely to succeed. No conflict robs a project of opportunities to find optimal solutions. Unhealthy conflict corrodes team productivity, morale and integrity, which in turn threatens timelines and reduces profitability. In fact, depending on the scale of the project, unhealthy conflict can even endanger organizational survival itself.
