Todo por amor (Spanish Edition) Jean Sasson

Esta es la historia real de la mujer de la portada de este libro. Maryam Khail nació en 1960, en el seno de una familia acomodada y culta de Kabul. Sus padres no deseaban para sus hijas la existencia de segunda clase que la sociedad afgana reservaba a las mujeres, y prometieron a Maryam y a su hermana que les permitirían elegir marido cuando terminaran la universidad. Pero la invasión soviética destruyó cualquier sueño de libertad y Maryam, convertida en una adolescente rebelde, tuvo que huir a Estados Unidos con su padre para salvar la vida. Allí se desvanecieron para siempre sus ansias de independencia, cuando el clan familiar la obligó a casarse con un hombre violento que la maltrató incluso en la noche de bodas. Maryam entregó entonces toda su vida y su cariño a su primogénito Durán, hasta que su padre lo secuestró y volvió con él a Afganistán. Así empezó una lucha para recuperar a su hijo perdido que no volvería a ver en muchos años.
