All Grown Up Now Erica Ransom

Ten years ago her mother and stepfather divorced but he's always been her daddy. Now she's moved away to start her life as an adult and face the challenges of all young adults everywhere...work, romance...

When a text conversation with her ex stepfather David turns to adult issues, what will she do? How will she react to the surge of emotions and physical reactions?

She will soon have to face her own inhibitions when she makes a trip to visit her two half brothers who happen to live with their father, David. Is it all just her imagination running away with her or is there more to their conversation than meets the eye?
