Memorias de Sherlock Holmes (Spanish Edition) Arthur Conan Doyle

Las memorias de Sherlock Holmes es una colección de historias de Sherlock Holmes, originariamente publicado en 1894, por Arthur Conan Doyle. En un momento de auténtica inspiración, basándose en el modelo de Quijote y Sancho que tantos novelistas han utilizado, el autor creó al doctor Watson, un médico leal pero intelectualmente torpe que acompaña a Sherlock y escribe sus aventuras. En julio de 1891 empezó a publicar en la revista Strand Magazine las andanzas de su personaje, basado parcialmente en uno de sus profesores de la universidad, que abogaba por seguir estrictos razonamientos deductivos en todos los órdenes de la vida.
