Worth Living: How God's Wild Love for You Makes You Worthy Mary DeMuth
Start living the confident, joyful life you were made for

In a world of comparison and competition, it's hard to remember that our true worth lies not in our circumstances, our achievements, or our failures. It doesn't even lie in how we react to those things. Our worth lies in God's unending love for us.

With deep compassion, Mary DeMuth dares you to believe that the God who started a good work in you is faithful to bring it to glorious completion. That the God who redeems you also loves you--right now and always--with a beautiful love. That you are a daughter of the King, always welcomed in his presence.

Discover here a future of strength and security, knowing that you are wildly loved and destined to have a great impact on the world around you.

"If you've ever struggled to believe God's love is for you--you!--you'll find both wise counsel and a compassionate friend in Worth Living."--Michele Cushatt, author of Undone

"Mary's beautiful, strong words are a healing balm to a desperate heart, a soothing song to a woman who has spent far too long doubting her true worth."--Erin MacPherson, coauthor of Hot Mama

"Mary writes not as a spectator of life but as one who has lived it in all its broken beauty. The wisdom and grace she shares are powerful."--Sheila Walsh, author, speaker, Bible teacher

"Mary reaches out a hand from a place of the broken-and-put-back-together, the fragile made strong, the poor made rich . . . This book is an embrace for anyone who longs to be known."--Emily T. Wierenga, founder of The Lulu Tree; author of Atlas Girl and Making It Home

Mary DeMuth is a former church planter in France and the author of more than thirty books, including The Day I Met Jesus. A sought-after speaker and longtime blogger, she has overcome (through Jesus's healing) a difficult past to become an authentic example of what it means to live a brand new story. She lives in Texas with her family. Learn more at www.marydemuth.com.
