Corsarios del Nilo (Novela histórica) (Spanish Edition) Steven Saylor

Estamos en el año 88 a.C. y desde Roma hasta Grecia pasando por Egipto, la guerra se cierne sobre la mayor parte de la civilización. El joven Gordiano—un ciudadano romano—está viviendo en Alejandría y pasa los días disfrutando de la compañía de su esclava Bethesda, a la espera de que la cordura vuelva a imponerse en el mundo conocido.

Pero el día en que Gordiano cumple veintidós años, unos desaprensivos secuestran a Bethesda al confundirla con la amante de un importante comerciante de la ciudad. Si Gordiano quiere recuperar a esa esclava por la que siente mucho más de lo que está dispuesto a reconocer, deberá dar con los secuestradores antes de que ellos descubran que han cometido un error y pierdan todo interés en que su presa continúe con vida. Utilizando todas las habilidades que su padre le enseñó, Gordiano deberá primero encontrarles y, después, convencerles de que puede ofrecerles algo de más valor que la hermosa esclava.

Mientras las calles de Alejandría se sumen en el caos y, con los rumores de una inmediata invasión del hermano de Ptolomeo, comienzan las revueltas de la ciudadanía, Gordiano se descubre metido de lleno en medio de una peligrosa misión : el saqueo del sarcófago de oro del mismísimo Alejandro Magno.
