La historia olvidada del vapor Príncipe de Asturias, hundido el 5 de marzo de 1916 con más de 600 personas a bordo.

Naufragio

, La historia olvidada del Titanic español

El 5 de marzo de 1916 se hundía frente a las costas de Brasil el trasatlántico Príncipe de Asturias, el más grande, moderno y lujoso de la compañía española Pinillos, con 600 personas a bordo. El brutal choque contra los arrecifes hizo que el enorme buque desapareciera en el océano en menos de cinco minutos. Sólo hubo 147 supervivientes. La tragedia conmocionó a la sociedad de la época. Sin embargo, el manto del olvido pronto cayó sobre todos los que perdieron su vida en el fondo del mar y sobre sus desgraciadas familias.

Francisco García Novell*, con brillante pulso narrativo y tras investigar en multitud de archivos, les da voz y resucita en esta novela coral la memoria de una época y una forma de viajar ya olvidadas, así como el misterio que envolvió el último viaje del vapor.
