When Angels Rise B de Paul

It is 1932 and in Berlin Hitler is scheming to overthrow democracy and take absolute power. If not stopped, in the following years he will incrementally manifest a rule of ignorance and senseless criminal hatred, which will result in the unthinkable; Genocide and mass murder on an industrial scale; looting pillage and a war of subjugation the like of which the world had never seen.

This is the story of Ute Engel, a Classics student. She has the gift of foresight. She alone has seen just what Hitler will do. Ute confides in Ramani and she becomes more than her best friend. They decide Hitler must go. This is the story of the good and decent Germans that she enlisted in her struggle against the mindless evil of Nazism. Time is running out...

This is the first in a trilogy following Ute and Ramani's incredible, hair-raising and sometimes darkly comic escapades.
