Gold Coast Edgar K. Gaisie

After twelve years as a successful corporate consultant, Ghanaian/

American Clinton Osei relocates to Ghana, West Africa to launch the family enterprise of Boateng Osei Inc. (BOI). BOI sets out to reclaim Ghana's natural resources to benefit the larger population. In the process they unknowingly become the target of an international business cartel that is determined to neutralize BOI members and gain control of the drilling rights to Ghana's newly discovered oil. To defend their family from the threat of the cartel

BOI has to devise a similar survival strategy to meet their enemy head on.

In the midst of the conflict the younger generation learn of their rich and complicated heritage, which includes the abduction and enslavement of their royal ancestor to the Caribbean and then

America, with difficult and determined reconnection to their homeland. During this journey selected family members are recruited to carryout a mystical tradition and uphold the folklore of once exiled Asante Chief Prempeh.
