The Haunting of Black Tower Mansion Debra Robinson

Deedsy Cooter's rundown mansion built by an ancestor who struck it rich in the California Gold Rush is haunted by a ghastly spirit who reappears each time tragedy strikes her family. No one knows exactly why the ghost haunts, only her identity: Lucia Ryan. Deedsy believes it somehow involves the century-old Gold Rush era feud between her family and the Ryan's.

When Deedsy's former classmate Nick Ryan returns to town, history is inadvertently recreated and the dreadful specter appears, along with a series of gruesome murders. The growing suspicion that one horrific event from the past is still impacting the present fuels Deedsy's race to find and destroy the appalling connections between them all.

Obsession, possession and the terrifying past stalk the present, and an ancient unpunished evil triggers ghostly revenge in this supernatural thriller.
