LAS CARTAS DE CLONARD (Spanish Edition) Joaquín J. Palacios

Madrid, 1912. La situación política de la nación se encuentra al borde del colapso. La crisis generalizada del sistema, acentuada por la desaparición de los grandes líderes creadores de la Restauración, como Cánovas y Sagasta, el desmoronamiento de la situación exterior en las colonias del 98 seguida de la turbulencia de la primera década del Siglo XX; disturbios de campesinos (1901), oleada de terrorismo anarquista en Barcelona (1904), atentados contra Alfonso XIII (1905 y 1906), rebrote carlista en Cataluña (1906), Guerra de Marruecos (1909), Semana Trágica (1909), Motín del Numancia (1911). Dejan a España en un estado complicado donde intereses económicos y políticos se confrontan en todos los niveles sociales sin contentar a nadie. Solamente una luz intenta alumbrar las tinieblas que se ciernen sobre España un gobierno de apertura liberal e importantes reformas sociales conducido por don José de Canalejas. pero está en el punto de mira de una confabulación: José de Canalejas. En este complicado contexto, el comisario de policía Sindo Luna, condecorado agente del cuerpo y veterano de la guerra de Cuba, aparte de lidiar día a día con delincuentes de toda clase se encarga de la titánica tarea de luchar contra la creciente violencia anarquista desde su comisaría del Distrito Centro. A raíz de una enigmática conversación en una plaza de toros y más llevado por su instinto que por ninguna certeza, el comisario junto a su inseparable ayudante apodado el Oso, iniciará la investigación de una confabulación que ha puesto en el punto de mira a Alfonso XIII y a Canalejas, y que acabará convirtiéndose en una intriga a caballo entre dos siglos. En ella se verán implicados algunas de las figuras más importantes de la convulsa España del siglo XIX y principios del XX. Pronto se hará manifiesta una conspiración impulsada desde la oligarquía conservadora a la izquierda más radical. Una serie de personajes tanto reales como ficticios de la administración del estado intentarán cumplir por todos los medios con su deber, a veces más allá del puro funcionariado. Una compleja trama de suspense donde se mezclan elementos políticos, místicos y criminales, y que emana directamente de una de las aspiraciones más atávicas del ser humano: la ambición y el ansia de poder.
