The Bible's Last Message To a Dying World Khurshid Ali

We are entering the most difficult time in human history. A crisis is coming. It is no longer possible to sustain the way of life we are presently accustomed to. We can see things changing rapidly – climate change, air and water pollution, soil erosion, loss of fertility of the land, and an overpopulated world. As these factors continue at the present rate, the conditions on earth which support life will gradually vanish. War preparations are at their peak, deadly weapons and guided missiles are at the hands of misguided leaders, and powerful corporations are without compassion or kindness. Most of the political, financial, and currency systems are failing, and being kept alive only by artificial methods. The public are not told the true facts; people are intentionally kept in darkness by the mainstream media.

It is time to wake up and find out what we can do to avoid this crisis. Otherwise it will turn into a calamity.

Unfortunately, we have run out of time. It is no longer possible to think in the old ways, to feel and believe as we have in the past, and make it to the new world. Those who do not adjust their thinking and their hearts will simply fall by the wayside. This is not sad, it is an opportunity!

Are you going to be left behind, or will you follow where God is leading? For thousands of years the great masters have come to our planet to show us the way. It is time we listened before it is too late.

If your future is of concern to you, if humanity is your concern, read this book. The old world is dying, both physically and spiritually, but a new one is taking its place. Join with us in the new world.
